++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
A dry, bright and sunny day.

Today:
A cloudy start across the east of the region, but the cloud will quickly retreat back towards the sea leaving a bright and sunny day, especially across Norfolk and Suffolk. Warmer for most, staying cool near the coast. Maximum temperature 19 deg C (66 deg F).

Tonight:
A dry night with clear skies across the region. Risk of fog patches forming overnight and slowly clearing after dawn. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Friday:
A bright morning once any fog clears with hazy sunshine. Some cloud bubbling up during the afternoon with a chance of a shower. Feeling warm with strong sunshine. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
A hot and sunny weekend albeit cloudy along the coasts from Sunday. Some of this cloud moving inland overnight with foggy conditions. Very warm throughout with strong sunshine, especially Monday.
